

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between Rajamangala University of Technology Phra Nakhon and
The Art Institute of Vancouver

In recognition of our common interests, Rajamangala University of Technology Phra Nakhon and the Art Institute of Vancouver are proud to establish a "Memorandum of Understanding".

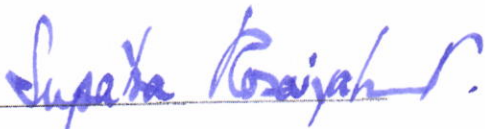

Both parties agree to promote a culture of collaboration and cooperation, which may include the following:

1. The exchange of academic schools to participate in conferences, lecture series, seminars, symposiums and research projects.
2. Exchange of publications and information pertaining to topics of common interest.
3. Exchange of faculty and students to study and conduct research in joint programs. The details of which will be decided upon a case-by-case basis. Detail include, but are not limited to: the transfer of credits; length of visit; budgets; specific dates; traveling; lodging; and the content of one's visit.
4. Any other areas of collaboration and cooperation that are mutually agreed upon in the future.

All activities of cooperation and collaboration presented with this agreement will be implemented with the utmost deference for each party's respective traditions, policies, and regulations. All expenses incurred during the process of implementing this agreement shall be discussed in the spirit of reciprocity and deliberated upon during subsequent agreements.

This MOU will be in effect for a period of five years and will be renewed automatically after each term. If one party wishes to exit from the said agreement, a written notice is requested at least six months prior to the planned termination date.
