CONTINUING
STUDIES @UVIC

To promote international cooperation, the University of Victoria Division of Continuing Studies (DCS) and Rajamangala University of Technology Phra Nakhon agree to enter into a cooperative agreement related to the delivery of English language and professional training programs. For the purpose of furthering potential cooperation in both education and academic learning experience, the DCS and Rajamangala University of Technology Phra Nakhon hereby affirm their intent to explore possible cooperation of mutual benefit to their respective universities. Academic cooperation and exchange is considered here to include but is not limited to:

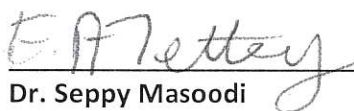

1. Facilitation of the study of English as an Additional Language (EAL) for students, faculty and staff of Rajamangala University of Technology Phra Nakhon.
2. Exploring opportunity for staff and faculty training and development.
3. Coordination of cultural activities for students, faculty and staff of Rajamangala University of Technology Phra Nakhon.
4. Exchange of data, documentation, and research materials in fields of mutual interest.

The two Parties agree that this Memorandum of Understanding is only to express the intentions of the parties and is not a legally binding document. Details of the implementation of any particular initiative resulting from this agreement shall be negotiated between the two universities as each specific case may arise and will result in a separate agreement. Both parties understand that financial arrangements will have to be negotiated and will depend on the availability of funds.

This agreement to promote academic collaboration is effective on signature of both Parties and shall continue until December 31, 2027. It is subject to revisions, renewal, or cancellation by mutual consent and becomes effective upon completion of signatures.

This Agreement has been executed on behalf of each of the Parties by the authorized signatories as indicated below:
